

Evangelism Preparation Guide

Good News Gospel Explosion

The prayer, "Bring us not into temptation," is itself a promise. If we commit ourselves to God we have the assurance, He "will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." 1 Corinthians 10:13.

The only safeguard against evil is the indwelling of Christ in the heart through faith in His righteousness. It is because selfishness exists in our hearts that temptation has power over us. But when we behold the great love of God, selfishness appears to us in its hideous and repulsive character, and we desire to have it expelled from the soul. As the Holy Spirit glorifies Christ, our hearts are softened and subdued, the temptation loses its power, and the grace of Christ transforms the character.

Christ will never abandon the soul for whom He has died. The soul may leave Him and be overwhelmed with temptation, but Christ can never turn from one for whom He has paid the ransom of His

Spiritual Preparation for Crusades

Spiritual preparation for a crusade is very important. Its objective is to develop total dependence on God and to listen to the directions given by the Holy Spirit. To cleanse myself of any know or unknown sin, so that I can be an effective tool in the hand of God.

Your plan of action should include, prayer and fast, and dailiy activity including:

- Reading a portion from the Bible daily.
- Prayer as often as I feel the need of prayer.
- Listen to an evangelistic sermon by another preacher.
- Read portions of the book Evangelism.
- ½ an hour daily meditation.
